

Head over Heels Collection

SHARE THE LOVE!

Our limited edition “Head over Heels Collection” is the perfect gift for that perfect someone!

Chocolates melt and flowers fade – why not give more lasting gifts of nature this Valentine’s Day? The exclusive “Head over Heels Collection” combines four precious oils and blends (all 5ml) each of which can add to the romance in the air in their own special way – the perfect gift for your significant other!

“What you romance, you keep. It’s like a flower. All of you have had houseplants. If you water them, they survive; if you don’t water them, they die. Mary doesn’t romance houseplants, she romances me.” – D. Gary Young

Joy is a delightful blend of precious essential oils such as rose, bergamot, and palmarosa to name only a few. Many cherish its feminine scent as a daily perfume that brings joy to the heart, mind, and soul. The blend inspires romance and can be used in a variety of ways including massages, baths, and diffusion.

Cinnamon Bark is held in the highest regard for its powerful natural qualities as well its aphrodisiac power. Like ginger, it increases body temperature creating feelings of desire, particularly among men.

Sensation is probably one of Young Living’s most romantic and arousing blends! The synergy created by blending ylang ylang, bergamot, and jasmine helps deepen the excitement of reaching new heights of self-expression and awareness. Try using it with V6 for an inspiring massage which will also nourish the skin.

Ginger is spicy, exotic, and full of eastern promise! Did you know though that Senegalese women weave belts of ginger root to restore their mates’ sexual potency? This makes it perfect for reviving passion and setting a romantic mood. It’s spicy, warm, and strong – give it a go!
